

425

THE EASTSIDE'S MAGAZINE

The

BEST

of 425

MAY 2018 // 425MAGAZINE.COM

May 13

MOTHER'S DAY BUFFET BRUNCH AT THE HEATHMAN KIRKLAND

All moms deserve the best Mother's Day brunch, and that's just what the Heathman promises to serve up. Modeled after the afternoon tea, the menu will feature pastries, tea sandwiches, fancy toasts, and more. A classy treat! heathmankirkland.com

May 13

THE COLOR RUN

Seattle's famous color run is supercharged with a new course and finish-line festival. Lace up your trusty running shoes, and get ready to be pelted with color bombs. When you're finished, you'll look like a work of art and have accomplished a physical feat. Register for your spot online at thecolorun.com.

May 15

NO HOMELESS KIDS BENEFIT LUNCHEON

Vision House will be holding an event to support parents and children experiencing homelessness at the Meydenbauer Center. Hear a formerly homeless mother share her story, and consider making a generous donation to the cause. The luncheon is free to attend and open to the public. vision-house.org

May 17

HISTORIC PUB CRAWL

So, maybe you've already explored Issaquah's mining history – but what about its colorful past of murder, mayhem, and Prohibition? This pub crawl will start at the Train Depot and go on to explore downtown establishments, each of which will feature a small cocktail or appetizer along with some juicy historical tales. downtownissaquah.com

May 18

REDMOND BIKE BASH 2018

What better way to celebrate Bike to Work Day than with an after-work bike bash? From 4-7 p.m., Redmond Central Connector Park will be alive with music, food trucks, beer gardens, and – you guessed it – bikes. There will be a bike skills clinic, local bike shops, a kids' safety session, and more. goredmond.com

May 19

ON THE TOWN WITH VILLAGE THEATRE

Village Theatre's annual Auction & Gala is a glamorous event that helps to fund the theater's many programs and performances. The evening will feature silent and live auctions, world-class performances, and a delicious four-course meal paired with wine. Tickets are $300 per person. villagetheatre.org

May 22

PRESERVE THE HARVEST 2018

Learn the basics of food safety and canning so that you can provide your family with safe and nutritious home-canned products. This class is the first of four offered throughout the summer that will teach you everything you need to know about preserving the harvest. Purchase a $20 ticket for one class, or a $60 one for all four. extension.wsu.edu

May 30-June 3

BELLEVUE JAZZ & BLUES FESTIVAL

Spend the end of May (and kick off June) at the 11th Annual Bellevue Jazz & Blues Festival, where you can celebrate community and musical creativity with over 40 live shows across the city. The Eastside's premier showcase for national and regional artists will be headlined by Deva Mahal and Dr. Lonnie Smith Trio, both playing at the Meydenbauer Center Theatre. bellevuedowntown.com

May 30

MAROON 5 AT THE TACOMA DOME

Don't deny yourself the opportunity to hear Adam Levine sing Wait from Maroon 5's new album Red Pill Blues in person among hundreds of fans who adore the band just as much as you do. The concert begins at 7:30 p.m., and the memories will last a lifetime. Tickets are available online at ticketmaster.com ■

