THE HEATHMAN HOTEL IN KIRKLAND ADDS SWOBO BICYCLES TO MEET ITS GUESTS' BUSINESS AND LEISURE NEEDS

"Pedal of Honor"

The Heathman Hotel in Kirkland guests enjoy free rental (to four hours) of hotel-designated Swobo "Dixon" bicycles; helmets are provided, and bicycles are thoroughly maintained and inspected. This easy, twist-shifting bike model has nine speeds and an alloy frame and fork, making it light yet tough enough to withstand urban abuse. The bicycle initiative allows guests to sightsee while choosing eco-friendly transportation. Within a short ride of Google and Microsoft offices, guests can head to downtown Kirkland meetings, or just unwind and cruise around nearby Heritage Park and the lakefront. Deep baskets on the bikes allow storage of briefcases and totes, so guests can concentrate on riding comfortably without jockeying uncomfortable loads.

About The Heathman Hotel

The Heathman Hotel in Kirkland located on Seattle's Eastside provides guests with the ultimate in gracious service in an ambience of understated elegance and comfort. The property has garnered the AAA of Washington Four Diamond Award®, an indicator of excellence which promises travelers an unparalleled lodging experience. The Heathman Hotel features 91 classic guest rooms and suites; the 5,000-square-foot Penterra Spa, complete with a sanctuary room, individualized treatment spaces and deluxe fitness center; 2,500 square-feet of meeting and event space; and Trellis, a 90-seat wine country inspired restaurant and bar helmed by Chef Brian Scheehser. Trellis' rustic, robust menu evolves with the seasons, often featuring items from Scheehser's own five-acre farm.
