SALAD LOVERS REJOICE: PRAISE THE FARMER

The 2-Hour Salad Returns to Kirkland's Trellis Menu

Kirkland, WA --- Trellis' seasonal 2-hour salad returns to their celebrated dinner menu for the summer. This up-to-the-minute dish showcases what is in harvest from Chef Brian Scheehser's 18-acre Woodinville farm. The 2-hour salad gets its namesake from Scheehser picking the freshest ingredients within 2 hours of service.

Chef Brian's inspiration comes largely from the local terrior (soil, topography, and climate) "featuring the flavors of the land" so guests are able to experience the freshness that comes from eating foods that are in season and freshly picked. The salad combinations constantly change from week to week and year to year, similar to what takes place with growing wine grapes and the making of wine.

The 2-hour salad will feature a fresh variety of lettuce, assorted greens, baby lettuce greens, carrots, beans, tomatoes, beets, peppers, onions, and berries, but the buck stops with the crop — whatever is ready to be harvested will land on the plate.

To experience Chef Scheehser's 2-hour salad, reserve a table for dinner by calling 425-284-5900 or online here.
